

6516205377.txt

I am a professional truck driver who runs to Texas from Mass. every week, and I depend on my satellite radio to keep me informed of the weather on the road. I also have an xm radio in my house, so that I am informed whenever I'm home for a few days off for impending weather that I will encounter on my trips. Many of my fellow truckers also use xm radio, to keep us aware of the traffic and weather reports.

Sincerely